Risk Spectrum of the Fund

This fund is a Fixed Income Fund that risk level is equal to Mixed Fund

Since the Master Fund can invest not greater than 50% of its assets in instruments rated lower than Baa3 by Moody's (or equivalent scale rated by S&P or Fitch Ratings) or unrated instruments, therefore, according to the criteria of SEC In case of fixed income funds with net exposure to non-investment grade/unrated instruments exceeding 20% of NAV but less than 80% of NAV, the risk level must be demonstrated as category 5.

Explanation of Risk

- market risk

portfolio duration : This fund has a portfolio duration of 2.84 Years

(Information as of 30 April 2022)

standard deviation : SD

Market Risk means the risk that the values of securities which the Fund has invested may increase or decrease due to outside factors such as economic/ investment situations, political factors both internally and internationally which could be considered from the Standard Deviation (SD) of the Fund. If the Fund has a high

SD, it is an indicator that the Fund has high a fluctuation from the changes in the prices of securities.

High sector concentration risk

- exchange rate risk

Currency Risk is the possibility that changes in exchange rate will affect the value of investment units. For example, if a mutual fund invests in securities denominated in US Dollar during Thai Baht depreciation and the units are subsequently sold when Thai Baht appreciates, the mutual fund will receive lower return in Thai Baht. On the other hand, if the same fund invests in securities denominated in US Dollar during Thai Baht appreciation and the units are subsequently sold when Thai Baht depreciates, the mutual fund will receive higher return in Thai Baht. Therefore, currency hedging techniques as follows are key tools to manage such risk.

- Hedging at discretion of the fund manager: Investors may be exposed to currency risk because it is the discretion of the fund manager whether to use a currency hedging technique.
